Meetings with John de Ruiter

John de Ruiter grew up far from typical spiritual centres, in Stettler, Alberta, where he experienced supreme awakening. In pure accordance with his realization, John was transformed. Since then, John's life has been determined only by direct knowledge, his every decision a response to deeper calling, regardless of personal cost. Because John acts according to his deepest knowing, his meetings feature long silences, visual connections and spacious dialogue. John's meetings are deep and delightful, an unbounded reservoir of meaning into which all are invited.

Biography

John de Ruiter is a Canadian-born teacher and pioneer of integrated philosophy who lives in and answers questions from a profound depth. It is from this depth of knowledge that he serves those who thirst for deeper meaning, purpose and communion. He regularly conducts seminars around the globe, inspiring, uplifting and opening new doors for his audiences.

What People Are Saying About John's Seminars

“Attending a seminar with John I experience a depth of stillness and expansion of awareness that continues to increase and build throughout the seminar. That greater depth and awareness becomes a backdrop for the rest of my life for how I respond to others when I go to the store or interact with my wife. The seminars help me build a real foundation to express more of who I am.”

Bill

“John creates a context where I have the opportunity to deepen and come from more of who I first am, the core essence of what is most good and true within.”

Connie

“The seminars with John provide an opportunity for a shift in my heart to greater openness and softness.”
