Grace and Alistair are passionate about sharing the awakening experience. Both are gifted teachers and facilitators with many years experience.

"Finding What's Real" arose from their sincere commitment to living the awakened life, reflected in these teachings.

Earlier participants have said "this program has been life changing", "I'd thoroughly recommend it to anyone wanting to find everything they have been searching for", "this program has helped more than anything else I've experienced in 40+ years of searching for meaning in my life. I feel the changes in all aspects of my being, there are so many tears, I can hardly see to write"
